Tidy Towns

The judges will be in knock in the next couple of weeks. Can we please ask for everyone's help in getting our village ready. The flower pots around the village have now been planted and the roundabout will be done in the following week. If everyone could give a little time to pick some weeds or sweep around. Even to pick a few weeds while out walking, every little bit helps. Many thanks to all who contributed so far. If anyone has any questions please call to Maura in Burke's shop.
