

SCRIPTURE SUMMER SCHOOL AT KNOCK SHRINE: 27 – 29 JUNE WITH DR KIERAN J. O'MAHONY OSA

Theme: "And God saw that it was good", Genesis: A biblical reflection on care for the earth.

Anxiety about the environment is part of our we live nowadays and we are rightly exercised by it. What resources have we, as believers, to respond? In this short programme, we use as a guide the teaching of Pope Francis in his ground-breaking letter Laudato Si'. The particular focus of the programme will be on a passages from the bible which have direct relevance today.

Attend Online or In-Person. Advance Booking required on Eventbrite. See www.knockshrine.ie for further details.

KNOCK MUSEUM

We are delighted to announce the official opening of an exhibition of paintings by Moycullen-based artist Sara Kyne entitled "People for Others" at the museum on Friday 30th June. This exhibition features a collection of portraits by the artist, honouring twenty-two people who have founded or who run charitable foundations. Included in the exhibition are people like Fr Peter McVerry, Christina Noble, Sr. Stan Kennedy, Sr Consilio Fitzgerald and Fr. Adrian Crowley. Among the twenty-two charities featured are Mary's Meals Ireland, Pieta House, Cork Penny Dinners and the Cenacolo Community based here in Knock parish. The exhibition will run for the summer months and as always, the museum is open daily 10-6pm and admission is free.
