

Living Water

A 'Season of Creation' Retreat

26th and 27th September 2026

A contemplative weekend in the sacred landscape of Knock Shrine

Overnight Accommodation • Single Occupancy • Continental Breakfast, Lunch & Light Supper €200 per person

During the worldwide Season of Creation, we are invited to slow down and listen again — to the cry of the earth, the longing of the human heart, and the quiet voice of God moving through all living things.

Set within the peaceful grounds of Knock Shrine, this gentle residential retreat draws inspiration from this year's Season of Creation theme: Living Water. Together, we will explore what it means to receive creation once more as gift, sacrament and sacred invitation.

Across the weekend, participants will be invited into reflective prayer, contemplative practices, shared silence and guided experiences in nature, making use of the beautiful prayer spaces and Creation Walk throughout the grounds. There will be time to rest, to walk slowly, to notice deeply and perhaps to rediscover the streams of living water that still flow quietly beneath the surface of our busy lives.

This retreat is open to anyone longing for a more prayerful and compassionate relationship with creation, with themselves, and with God.

An additional night (Friday, 25 September) may be booked for €50
